Message from the Board Chair and the President/CEO

Dear CAN Council Ambassador,

2015 is now in our history books as a year of tremendous change, planning and impact! As a committed supporter of our mission, you play an important role in our work to stop child abuse and neglect in our region!

On behalf of our Board of Directors and our dedicated staff, we are proud to present our 2015 Annual Report.

In this stunning, information-packed report, you will learn of the many programs and services provided this year. We are honored to share updates on each of our programs, which will remind you why your support is critical to continuing this work each and every day!

Here are just a few of the highlights from 2015:

• Building expansion completed and open house hosted (see page 12 for more)
• Planning for and expansion of our Court Appointed Special Advocates program into Bay County (see page 13 for more)
• Child Abuse Prevention Education (CAPE) team selected by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services to facilitate statewide mandated-reporter training
• Expansion of CAPE programming via 21 new Safe Baby computerized infant simulators for Bay County
• Reaccreditation of the Saginaw County Children’s Advocacy Center (CAC) by the National Children’s Alliance

As we plan and program for our future, we keep our focus on stopping child abuse and neglect — and on affecting generations to come! Thank you for all that you do to support our mission and make a difference in the lives of the children we serve across our region!

With the best interest of children in mind,

Janice A. Doner

To learn more about the CASA program’s expansion into Bay County, see page 13.
On October 8, 2015, we held a public open house to share our beautiful, newly expanded Saginaw headquarters. Although the building at 1311 N. Michigan Avenue had been home to us for several months, we were thrilled to formally open the doors of the building to those who had made it possible.

Through the generous support of the community and dedicated co-chairs Richard J. Garber and Michael J. Stodolak, the CAN Council conducted a successful Capital Campaign to expand our facility. The new 12,000-square-foot facility is the culmination of more than six years of needs analysis, design, redesign and vision for the future. We can now provide:

- Superior privacy and security for abused children and their families during forensic interviews and medical evidence collection examinations
- Dedicated space to interview more than one child at a time and for all necessary parties to observe each interview
- Capacity to offer evidence-based parent support services and prevention programming for groups of up to 75 parents/professionals
- Adequate training space and private meeting space for CASA volunteers and supervisors

Our new facility boasts many new possibilities, including a larger space for CAPE programming. With our new space, we were able to increase our classroom and community education by more than 4,500 hours versus 2014! See page 7 of this report for details.

We also have been able to expand partnerships with other organizations through our CACs. In 2015, we welcomed a partnership with the Central Michigan University College of Medicine to our team — along with a new Medical Director, Dr. Amandeep Dhaliwal. Through this partnership, we can provide a valuable educational experience. Residents will be able to observe the work of our Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) and Medical Director and will learn about the importance of medical hearsay when testifying in the court system, and professors will offer their expertise to the CAC medical exams. Thank you to Dr. Mary Jo Wagner, Dr. Steven Vance and the CMU medical administrative team for leading this effort for collaboration.

Future plans for our CAC include dedicated space for our multidisciplinary team; law enforcement and the Department of Health and Human Services can now co-locate if needed.

In addition, our building expansion reaches into the basement level to help facilitate new partnerships and program expansion.

Thanks to all of you, we are building communities where children are free from abuse and neglect!
During 2015, the CAN Council and our CASA Director began planning to expand into Bay County, intending to work with the county’s court system and the local Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) office to make the program a reality by December 2015.

In the beginning, our work was guided by the National CASA Association and Michigan CASA Association to ensure that we followed the strict national standards for local CASA programming. Because Saginaw’s program had earned its certification since 2002, the certification process for Bay County would be expedited once the required steps for the new program were completed. We were immediately accepted and supported by now-retired Judge Karen A. Tighe from Bay County’s Probate/Family Court.

“I have seen the excellent results of CASA volunteers in other counties, and most notably, I am aware of many judges in Michigan who credit CASA with making their judicial decisions better-informed in matters concerning vulnerable children,” she said in a press release.

In September, we held our first class for those interested in becoming CASAs in either Saginaw County or Bay County. CASAs are highly trained volunteers serving as the voice for children who are in the system due to abuse or neglect. Adults – age 21 and older – from all walks of life are encouraged to apply. Upon completion of 40 hours of training, a CASA can expect to contribute an average of 10 hours each month. The CASA program fills the gap of the foster care and child welfare systems by training and supervising volunteers to advocate for the best interest of abused children. With the help of a CASA, a child is half as likely to languish in the foster care system and is more likely to find a safe, permanent home.

By October 21, we had trained seven new Bay County CASAs, all of whom had experience in the Saginaw County CASA program but lived in Bay County. This was a great beginning, but we set our sights on additional recruiting to address the number of children being confirmed as abused or neglected in Bay County – a number that increased by 17% in 2014 and 2015, according to the KIDS COUNT Data Book.

We offer our heartfelt gratitude for the support we have received from Judge Tighe, Judge John Keuvelaar; Chief District Judge Dawn Klida, Court Administrator John Torres and Bay County DHHS Director Kim Bejcek. Without their belief in this critical program, the Bay County CASA program would not exist to keep our children from “falling through the cracks.”
CHILD ADVOCATE OF THE YEAR

For 2015, Jeanne Murphy received our Child Advocate of the Year award, which recognizes those who demonstrate an outstanding commitment to making the Great Lakes Bay Region a better place for children.

Jeanne has dedicated her personal and professional life to improving the lives of children and families in our region. She began her career in education before moving to the nonprofit sector, and her career concluded in the for-profit sector, spending 16 years as the Marketing Director for Yeo & Yeo, P.C., CPAs & Business Consultants. Jeanne has always been willing to share her expertise with organizations and has made a lasting impact on any organization in which she is involved.

Professionally, Jeanne’s talents and energy are boundless … but it is her devotion to volunteering that brought her to the CAN Council. With volunteer experience serving such organizations as Toastmasters International, Rock the Island, Creative 360 in Midland, the Leadership Alumni Association of Saginaw and the CAN Council, Jeanne’s willingness to share her time, talent and treasure makes her a highly sought-after person in our region.

Despite her full calendar and commitments — even after her retirement — Jeanne agreed to play a critical role with the CAN Council as our Capital Campaign Manager for 2014. From day one, she worked full-time on this project — creating project timelines, reviewing database management, reaching out to her vast social network of volunteers to be on our capital campaign team and serving as the “right hand” to the CEO. With Jeanne’s optimism and ability to get things done, the “Mission Possible!” team of volunteers set our goal and began to make this dream happen!

Jeanne volunteered tirelessly with the CAN team and Capital Campaign leadership to recruit, train, activate and support campaign volunteers. Simultaneously, she kept her eye on the vision and knew that “Together We CAN” make a difference in the lives of our children … and we did!

Congratulations, Jeanne!
